About the course PineConnector testing

Course Presenter : The Art of Trading

PineConnector testing, in this course we will learn everything about testing strategies with PineConnector. You'll discover how to connect your TradingView scripts to brokers like MetaTrader, run backtests, and perform live and paper trading tests. Weâ€™ll explore key techniques such as log monitoring, error troubleshooting, and testing during volatile markets. Whether you are sending alerts from Pine Script strategies or indicators, this course will guide you through validating each step before going live. From setting up your environment to understanding trade delays and debugging issues, this course is your full testing toolkit. By the end of the course, you'll be able to confidently test and troubleshoot any PineConnector setup to ensure your algorithm performs exactly as intended.
