About the course farm equipment

Course Presenter : Bordeauxblues

farm equipment, in this course provides learners with a comprehensive understanding of the machines and tools that support modern agriculture. It explores the classification and functions of equipment ranging from simple hand tools to advanced mechanized systems. Students will study tractors, soil preparation implements like plows and harrows, planting and seeding machines, irrigation systems, crop protection sprayers, and harvesting equipment. The course emphasizes proper use, safety practices, and regular maintenance to ensure durability and efficiency. Learners will also examine post-harvest tools, cost-effective equipment selection, and innovations such as precision farming and smart machinery. By combining theory with practical examples, the course equips participants with the knowledge to improve productivity, reduce labor, and adopt sustainable farming practices using the right equipment for each stage of crop production.
