About the course Syphilis Diagnosis and Treatments

Syphilis Diagnosis course, in this course we will explore the various methods and techniques used for diagnosing syphilis. Participants will learn about the clinical manifestations of syphilis, serological tests such as the Venereal Disease Research Laboratory (VDRL) and Treponema pallidum particle agglutination (TP-PA) tests, as well as direct detection methods like dark-field microscopy and polymerase chain reaction (PCR). Through case studies and interactive discussions, learners will gain insights into the interpretation of test results, differential diagnosis, and the importance of timely and accurate diagnosis in the management of syphilis infections.
