About the course Rules for plural forms of irregular nouns

Course Presenter : EnglishAnyone

Rules for plural forms of irregular nouns, in this course we will explore how irregular nouns form their plural versions without following standard "-s" or "-es" rules. Irregular nouns change in various ways, such as vowel shifts (man â†’ men, tooth â†’ teeth), complete word changes (mouse â†’ mice, child â†’ children), or remaining unchanged (sheep â†’ sheep, deer â†’ deer). This course will break down the patterns, exceptions, and common irregular plural nouns used in everyday English. You will learn through interactive exercises, real-life examples, and pronunciation practice to help you recognize and use irregular plurals correctly. Understanding these rules is essential for improving writing, reading comprehension, and fluent conversation skills. Whether youâ€™re a beginner or looking to refine your grammar, this course will provide a clear and practical approach to mastering irregular plural nouns. EnglishAnyone
