About the course Laravel Permission with inertia

Course Presenter : Tony Xhepa

Laravel Permission with inertia, in this course Laravel Permission with Inertia course is designed to teach you how to integrate Spatieâ€™s Laravel Permission package with Inertia.js to manage roles and permissions effectively in modern Laravel applications. In this course, we will learn how to install and configure Laravel Permission, create and assign roles, and define permissions for various actions. You will explore setting up Inertia.js with Laravel, passing roles and permissions data to the frontend, and using conditional rendering in Vue or React components based on user access levels. We will cover securing backend routes with middleware, creating dynamic navigation menus, and controlling UI elements according to permissions. Additionally, we will build an admin panel to manage users, roles, and permissions visually, and implement best practices for authorization in both backend and frontend. By the end, you will have the skills to develop secure, role-based Laravel apps with smooth Inertia-powered interfaces. Tony Xhepa
